5. See Sam Anderson's Flowers and Money

Her first show in a tiny new gallery.

All signs point to the vigorously bubbling Lower East Side gallery scene. Witness this new space, barely bigger than a shoe box, where Sam Anderson debuts with a trippy cluster of dowels standing waist-high, many with wee things situated about—bird bones, little tiny barrels, teensy newspapers, mini-horseshoes—in an arrangement straight from her burgeoning imagination. —Jerry Saltz
